WELCOME TO CORPUS CHRISTI, MAIDEN LANE!

You are most welcome to Corpus Christi on this historic day. During this Solemn Pontifical Mass of Corpus Christi His Eminence, Cardinal Nichols will raise this church to the dignity and status of the Diocesan Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament. On 20th October 1874, Cardinal Manning announced that “a Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament had been opened in Covent Garden.” Today, his successor and our present Cardinal Archbishop, will make the wishes and desires of his predecessor a reality. And so, in the very heart of London, will be a Shrine where the Eucharistic Lord may be found and adored in a very particular way.

We are grateful to His Eminence, Cardinal Nichols for being with us today, and for supporting our work and ministry. We would also like to thank all those who have made the restoration of this Shrine possible; by their craftsmanship, monetary gifts and grants. Special mention must be made of The Albert Gubay Foundation for their tremendous support; and we are delighted to have some of their Trustees present at this Mass. We would also like to mention Viridor Credits Environmental Company, and to thank them for their continued support.

Sincere thanks are also extended to the Patrons of this project, without whom many doors would have remained closed to us.

There are so many people who have supported us in so many different ways during the restoration work of the last four years. And special mention must be made of our dear faithful and regular parishioners, who have coped with some very uncomfortable and difficult times while the work was taking place. Like most things in life, when we see the result we know the hard work was worth the effort.

Enjoy your time here today, and keep us in your prayers, as we begin the specific mission of this Shrine church. And know that you are in our prayers too.
