DON'T WORRY – I HAVEN'T LOST MY FAITH

If you see me not kneeling or genuflecting please don't worry – I haven't lost my faith or belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I've had a bit of a knee problem over the last few months which, at times, has been rather debilitating. I'm now getting some treatment and things are greatly improving. It's now much easier for me to do the normal things that we all do when we come into the church:

- Genuflecting as we enter, to acknowledge the Eucharistic Presence of the Lord – before we go into our pew, to kneel down and offer ourselves to the Lord, telling Jesus our intentions for the Mass
- Kneeling during the Eucharistic prayer – as Our Blessed Lord comes from heaven to earth, to offer Himself to us
- Genuflecting as we leave our pew to come up to the altar rail to receive Jesus under forms of bread and wine
- Kneeling at the altar rail to receive this Heavenly Food
- Genuflecting as we leave our pew at the end of the Mass – as we leave the church and head off to share the faith with others.

Fr Alan Robinson

LATIN AT THE 11.30AM MASS

Those of you who come to this Mass regularly will know that much of it is in Latin, both sung and spoken parts. As from 7th October, the first Sunday of the month, we are going to celebrate the whole of this Mass in Latin – excepting the Homily! We have books from the CTS which have the whole rite in both Latin and English for you to use. Or you could even get a copy for yourself from the bookshop on the cathedral piazza, just £2.45 a copy, and bring it to Mass.

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION

As from 1st November, the next Holy Day of Obligation to fall on a weekday, there will be an Extraordinary Form Mass celebrated here at 8.00am. This means that on that day, there will be FIVE Masses when you can fulfil your Obligation. #justsaying

PRAYERS WHILE WE'RE NOT HERE

There are many 7 day lamps burning in Corpus Christi: some “formally”, like those in the sanctuary lamps, plus those that many of you have left on the votive stands around the church. When you leave these burning, the intention is kept before God for as long as the lamp is burning. It's a great way to place before God someone you love – even when you're not here and are getting on with your daily lives. For a very particular intention, anniversary, a recent death, or a joyous celebration etc, you might wish to have all of the lamps in the Sanctuary burning before the Blessed Sacrament. All of these things you can arrange by using one of the envelopes at the back of the church.

And if you would like a lamp at any time during the week, please ring the doorbell.

ADOREMUS EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: LONDON

For those who would like to take part in the Adoremus Eucharistic Congress, but are unable to travel to Liverpool to do so, I am pleased to inform you that we will be hosting a Day with the Lord on Saturday 8th September which will coincide with the Congress itself. The day begins at 7am with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. At 12 noon there will be a Solemn Mass of the Nativity of Our Lady. At 4:30pm, there will be a led Holy Hour with devotions by Msgr Ronald Knox, which will end with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Vigil Mass of Sunday will follow at 6pm. All are most welcome to join in with all, or part of the day. If you are able to volunteer an hour between 7am and 5pm to sit and keep watch before the Blessed Sacrament, please contact the Parish Office, or speak to Father.

MASS INTENTIONS

There are Masses available in the Mass Book - please use the envelopes at the back of the church or visit the website. “Put all the good works in the world against one Holy Mass; they will be as a grain of sand beside a mountain.” – St. John Vianney

DIARY DATE - PADRE PIO CENTENARY

Thursday 20th September 2018 is the Centenary of Padre Pio receiving the visible Stigmata. We will be celebrating a Solemn Mass at 6.30pm on that day, and this will be followed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Our guest preacher will be Fr Stephen Morrison, O.Praem. Sub-Prior of the Norbertine Priory, Chelmsford. Come along, and ask for the intercession of this great saint.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION

If you would like to prepare for any of the Sacraments of the Church, please contact us in the Parish Office.

THE SACRISTY

The work is almost completed – just the organ gallery floor to be laid. When finished, we will have an excellent space where we can prepare for the liturgies of the Church and store safely and carefully all the items we need – including the new beautiful vestments.

VESTMENTS FOR THE SHRINE

We will soon be receiving the next shipment from Rome of some more of the beautiful vestments which you have so generously purchased in memory of loved ones. Each set of vestments has stitched inside it the name of the person in whose memory they were donated. Please join your prayers with the intention of the priest, praying for that person. If you would like to donate some vestments, or anything else, full details can be found on our Shrine website: have a look at

<https://corpuschristimaidenlane.org.uk/donate/vestments/>

SODALITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The next Sodality Mass is at 6.30pm on Thursday 6th September and our guest preacher will be Fr. Lawrence Lew, OP, a Dominican of the Rosary Shrine in Haverstock Hill. The confraternity meets on a monthly basis for Mass, Adoration and Benediction, adoring Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament and the Mass is offered for the intentions of members. Leaflets containing application forms are available at the back of the church, or you can join online at sodality.co.uk
