DO YOU COME HERE OFTEN?

Do you come to Mass here on a fairly regular basis, either every week, or several weeks in the month? Are you a UK Tax Payer? If so, please could I ask you to consider using numbered donation envelopes, which can be acquired from the Parish Office. These allow us to claim 25% on whatever you give from HMRC – and you don't have to fill them out every week! All you do is pop your usual donation in the numbered envelope and then put that in the bag as it goes around. Even if you only give £5 a week, we can claim £1.25 on that, making your weekly donation £6.25 – without costing you a penny more! Say you only come here twice a month, but give £5 when you are here – that's £30 a year extra to the Parish, and all you've had to do is put your fiver in an envelope. If you are able to give in this way, please speak to Alex or Fr Alan and they can give you a box of envelopes for the year.

THE NEW DISABLED LIFT

Great news – the disabled new lift is ready and will be delivered and fitted on Monday. I'm sorry about the delay, but it had to be constructed to fit the space at the back of the church. So it should be in operation from Tuesday onwards. A HUGE thank you to all those people who very kindly contributed towards the cost of this; we are most grateful to you.

SODALITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The next Sodality Mass is at 6.30pm next week on Thursday 5th December and our guest preacher will be Fr Julian Large, Cong.Orat., Provost of the London Oratory. The Sodality meets on a monthly basis for Mass, Adoration and Benediction, adoring Jesus truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Mass is offered for the intentions of members. Leaflets containing application forms are in the church, or visit sodality.co.uk

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

Saturday 30th November, 6pm – The Byron Consort from Harrow School will be back again this year, singing the Vigil Mass and giving a free performance of Sacred Music afterwards.

MASS INTENTIONS

Envelopes are at the back of the Church. The Mass book gets VERY full these days, so I suggest getting them in quick if you want a specific date...no space now until January.

SEVEN DAY LAMPS

Seven Day Lamps are available from the Presbytery for £5 or after Sunday Masses. You can also have the Sanctuary Lamps burning for a particular intention of yours.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Please do get in touch if you would like to speak to Father about some aspect of your spiritual life.

CONFESSIONS

Confessions are heard for half an hour before all Masses – but if you can't make it then, please ring the doorbell of the Rectory to see if a priest is available.

GENERAL ELECTION: VOTE WISELY!

The upcoming General Election presents us with an opportunity to elect an individual representative who reflects as closely as possible our Catholic beliefs. It allows us to revisit Catholic Social Teaching and to connect our voting to our Catholic faith. It can be a chance to proclaim the inherent dignity and value of every human being, made in the image and likeness of God, and to promote the common good.

It is the duty of all of us to uphold the most basic and fundamental human right – the right to life. We should urge candidates to recognise human life from the moment of conception until natural death and to legislate for its protection at every stage, including protecting the unborn child, ensuring that both mother and child are accepted and loved, and provided what support may be needed in the stages between. We should remind our politicians that abortion, assisted suicide and euthanasia are, as the Church has consistently taught, always morally unacceptable. Decriminalisation of abortion unhappily paves the way towards a legal basis for abortion on demand, for any reason, up to birth and politicians should be urged to resist it.

Sadly, in their manifestos, several parties have already pledged to decriminalise abortion. This change in law would scrap the current 24-week time limit for abortion – and abortion would be available on-demand, for any reason, up to birth. This would be the most extreme abortion law in the world. No Catholic could consider voting for these parties and their disgusting manifestos, continuing to call themselves Catholic, and coming to the altar to receive Holy Communion. Please vote for life, not death.

TIME TO PREPARE FOR THE COMING OF GOD

After our joyful celebration of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe today, we begin a new Church Year, and enter into that "Little Lent", that time we call Advent. It's a time for some quiet reflection on the significance of the Incarnation of God, to prepare for the coming of God into this world. And also how, as the new Church year begins, we "could do better" for God. So: what might we do?

- Be more diligent in saying your daily prayers
- Spend some time before the Blessed Sacrament
- Go to Confession before Christmas?
- Have a good spiritual book to hand, to lead you deeper into the Catholic Faith and your relationship with God?
- Enter into the "The God who Speaks" biblical program. (More news of this when it arrives...)
- To be more enthusiastic and open about your faith, giving others the opportunity to hear the Gospel Message from your lips?
- Why not invite someone to come to Mass with you, perhaps a family member who has fallen away.

Don't let this great opportunity pass you by. Fr Alan Robinson
