YOUR NAMES ARE WRITTEN IN HEAVEN

The Gospel today presents Jesus sending out 72 disciples to the villages he is about to visit in order to prepare the way. This is a particular feature of the Evangelist Luke, who stressed that the mission was not exclusive to the Twelve Apostles but extended also to the other disciples. Indeed, Jesus said: "The harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few". There is work for all in God's field.

Christ, however, did not limit himself to sending out his missionaries: he also gave them clear and precise instructions on how to behave. He first sent them out "two by two" so that they might help each other and bear witness to brotherly love. He warned them that they would be like "lambs in the midst of wolves". They were to be peaceful in spite of everything, and were to bear a message of peace in every situation; they were not to take clothes or money with them in order to live on whatever Providence offered them; they were to heal the sick as a sign of God's mercy; wherever people rejected them, they were to depart, doing no more than to alert them to their responsibility for rejecting the Kingdom of God.

St Luke highlighted the disciples' enthusiasm at the good results of their mission and recorded Jesus' beautiful expression: "Do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven". May this Gospel reawaken in all the baptized the awareness that they are missionaries of Christ, called to prepare the way for him with words and with the witness of their lives.

It is vacation season and I hope everyone, especially those in greatest need, will be able to take a bit of vacation to restore their physical and spiritual energy and recover a healthy contact with nature. In Italy, as in other places, it is often usual to travel somewhere high up in the mountains, where the air is somewhat cooler. The mountains, in particular, call to mind in particular the spirit's ascent towards the heavens, its uplifting towards the "high standard" of our humanity, which daily life unfortunately tends to debase. May the Virgin Mary protect us always, both in our mission and in well-deserved rest, so that we may joyfully and fruitfully carry out our work in the Lord's vineyard.

UNIVERSITY CHAPLAINCY FOR STUDENTS

The University Chaplaincy is calling anyone who will be a student at any of the London universities and colleges, or University of Hertfordshire, this coming year. Based at Newman House, Gower Street, they also have campus-based chaplains at many of the universities and colleges. For any students other than freshers there is also an opportunity to live in at Newman House, a catered lodging with attractive rates and its own chapel. The application form is available on the Chaplaincy website universitycatholic.net

SEVEN DAY LAMPS

Are available at the back of the church for £6, or online at maidenlane.org.uk/lamps You can also have the lamps that hang in the Sanctuary burn for a particular intention of yours.

FR ALAN'S SILVER JUBILEE – THANK YOU!

Thank you to all of those who came to celebrate my Silver Jubilee with me. It was a beautiful evening and I was very touched by all of your kind words, presents, but most of all – prayers. I am so very grateful to all of you who support the work of the Shrine, in whatever ways you are able, and therefore, by extension, support me in my service here. I entrust myself and my priesthood to Our Blessed Lady, as well as Our Lord in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

SODALITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The next Sodality Mass with Adoration and Benediction will be on Thursday 7th July at 6:30pm This month's guest preacher will be Fr Joseph Bailham, OP, a Dominican priest based at the Rosary Shrine of St Dominic's at Haverstock Hill. All most welcome. To find out more about the Sodality and to become a member, visit sodality.co.uk

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA – NEXT SUNDAY

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure onboard. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health.

Sea Sunday is Sunday 10th July. It is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church, by visiting stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work, so please give generously. Thank you.

CHORISTER OPPORTUNITIES AT WCCS

Every September up to six boys join Westminster Cathedral Choir School in Year 4 as choristers. Becoming a chorister offers a boy the opportunity to sing in a world famous choir, and to join a thriving, inclusive, independent school for boys, age 4 to 13. All choristers receive generous scholarships supplemented by means-tested bursaries worth up to 100% of fees. Contact Lucy Auger to find out more. Telephone 020 7798 9081 or email lauger@choirschool.com

MISSA CANTATA FOR SS JOHN FISHER & THOMAS MORE

On Saturday 9th July at 10am there will be a Missa Cantata according to the Missal of 1962 at Rochester Cathedral in the crypt chapel of St Ithamar, for the joint feast of St John Fisher and St Thomas More in the traditional liturgical calendar. St John Fisher was the bishop of Rochester for 31 years. Both saints died as martyrs under Henry VIII. The Mass will be offered by Fr. Thomas Lynch, parish priest of Strood. Refreshments and networking after Mass. Direct trains from London to Rochester depart from Victoria, London Bridge, and St Pancras. Trains from Kent arrive at Rochester and Strood. There are also several car parks near the cathedral.
